

First Republic Appoints Jake Lamarine as Regional Managing Director

February 25, 2019

SAN FRANCISCO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 25, 2019-- First Republic Bank (NYSE:FRC), a leading private bank and wealth management company, today announced that financial services executive Jake Lamarine has been named Regional Managing Director with responsibility for the bank's lending and relationship management in Jackson, Wyoming.

First Republic's Jackson office provides private banking, private business banking and private wealth management, including investment, trust and brokerage services. First Republic's personal and business bankers serve as a single point of contact to a team of professionals who manage both sides of a client's balance sheet.

"Jake Lamarine is an accomplished banking executive who understands the needs of the Jackson community," said Kellie Abreu, Deputy Chief Banking Officer of First Republic Bank. "Jake shares First Republic's commitment to exceptional client service, and his leadership and expertise will help us serve our growing number of clients in the region."

Prior to First Republic, Lamarine worked for the Bank of Jackson Hole as Vice President and Commercial Lender. Before that, he worked as a loan originator for Embrace Home Loans in Newport, Rhode Island. Earlier in his career, he was a staff scientist for Arcadis-US and for Resource Controls, both in Rhode Island. Lamarine has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Anthropology from St. Lawrence University and attended the Pacific Coast Banking School held at the University of Washington, Foster School of Business. Lamarine is active in the local community and has served as a volunteer for Friends of Pathways and the Art Association of Jackson Hole.
